LCCC Announces New Leadership

California – Today, the Latino Caucus of California Counties, President Supervisor Alfredo Pedroza (Napa County) announced its new leadership.

- President - Supervisor V. Manuel Perez (Riverside County)
- Vice President - Supervisor Debra Lucero (Butte County)
- Secretary/Parliamentarian - Supervisor James Gore (Sonoma County)
- Treasurer - Supervisor Chris Lopez (Monterey County)

“It was an honor to serve as President of the Latino Caucus of California Counties for the past two years and I am confident that President-Elect Supervisor V. Manuel Perez and the incoming Executive Board will take our Caucus to the next level and continue the work to improve our communities across the state” said Supervisor Alfredo Pedroza (Napa County).

“This is an honor, and I appreciate my fellow Latino county supervisors across our state for selecting me to serve as president of the Latino Caucus of California Counties,” said Supervisor Perez. “The Latino Caucus of California Counties is a voice on many key issues important to the Latino community, from the 2020 Census effort, policies affecting immigrant communities such as DACA and public charge, and our current effort for California to have Latino representation in the U.S. Senate for the first time. I look forward to working on all these priority areas, and one of our top priorities is to advance broadband infrastructure to improve education access and close the digital divide.” said President-Elect Supervisor V. Manuel Perez (Riverside County)

“I look forward to working with Supervisor Perez and our incredible Latino Caucus members on important issues facing California residents.” said Vice President-Elect Supervisor Debra Lucero (Butte County) who is also the first Latina elected Supervisor in Butte.
