LCCC Applauds Governor’s Nomination of Dr. Shirley Weber for next California Secretary of State

California – On behalf of the Latino Caucus of California Counties, we offer our congratulations to Assemblymember Dr. Shirley Weber on her nomination to become California’s next Secretary of State.

“Congratulations on your historic nomination to become California’s next Secretary of State,” said LCCC President and Riverside County Supervisor V. Manuel Perez. “Dr. Weber is admired, respected, accomplished and is an example to all in the State of California. Dr. Weber’s tireless work to protect and advance voting rights in California is exemplary and will serve her well in her new role as Secretary of State. Her appointment symbolizes hope and unity for all communities of color. We wish Dr. Shirley Weber much success. Her success is our success!”

“2021 is shaping up to be an incredible year of firsts in California. I am grateful to our governor for appointing Dr. Weber as Secretary of State. She has been described as ‘tough and tireless’ and will continue to expand voting opportunities for people of color in our great state,” concluded LCCC Vice President and Butte County Supervisor Debra Lucero.

If confirmed by the Legislature, Dr. Weber would be the first African American woman to serve as Secretary of State in California.
