LCCC Applauds Governor’s Nomination of Assemblymember Rob Bonta as California’s next Attorney General

California – Today, the Latino Caucus of California Counties (LCCC) congratulates Assemblymember Rob Bonta on his nomination to become California’s next Attorney General.

“I want to congratulate Assemblymember Rob Bonta on his nomination to be California’s Attorney General,” said LCCC President V. Manuel Perez. “I also want to thank Governor Newsom for his leadership and insight to make the best choice for California. Assemblymember Bonta is incredibly intelligent, tenacious, and determined and the LCCC cannot wait to work together on all issues that affect disenfranchised communities throughout the state.”

“The LCCC could not be more excited for Assemblymember Bonta’s recent nomination,” said LCCC Vice President Debra Lucero. “At a time where divide and hate are perpetuated daily in this country, California continues to be the nation’s gold standard of inclusion and diversity. As the first Filipino Attorney General, Rob Bonta will undoubtedly work to protect all Californians and ensure that there is no community left behind.”
