The LCCC Issues Statement on the Supreme Court of the United States' decision to defend DACA

SACRAMENTO, CA – The Latino Caucus of California Counties (LCCC) issues the following statement today from its President, Napa County Supervisor Alfredo Pedroza, on the Supreme Court of the United States' (Supreme Court) decision on the DACA program.

“It can be said that during Donald Trump’s presidency, decisions made by the Supreme Court have been quite unpredictable,” said President Pedroza. “Today, we celebrate their decision to be on the right side of history in support of our DACA recipients. Since its creation in 2012, the DACA program has provided nearly 700,000 young immigrants with the opportunity to fulfill their American dream. Through the continuation of the program, even more of our brightest young minds will be able to contribute to our society. The Supreme Court’s action upholds the very fabric of what makes our country so enticing to immigrants – that no matter who you are or where you come from – we have a place for you here too.”
